What is an au pair?

As an au pair through Au Pair Link, you'll join a host family overseas in your chosen country to provide a live-in form of childcare and provide a unique cultural exchange and learning experience. In return, you receive a wage, room & board, travel opportunities, a network of au pairs to socialise with and support from your local au pair agency.

How do I apply?

Make your application online at www.aupairlink.co.nz. There, you'll also find all the countries and locations you can work in.

What will I get?

Your package and remuneration varies depending on the programme you choose or the country you go to. Typically, in return for your work as an au pair you will receive:

- A weekly stipend or wage
- Room and board – including all meals
- Completion bonus (depends on programme/country)
- Free study courses (depends on programme/country)
- Free public transport card (depends on programme/country)

It also varies regarding how many days off you get and other such benefits, so take a good look at the country specific and programme information on www.aupairlink.co.nz to find out more.
